In the Zohar, the jewel in the crown of Jewish mystical literature, the verse "A river flows from Eden to water the garden" (Genesis 2:10) symbolizes the river of divine plenty that unceasingly flows from the depths of divinity into the garden of reality. Hellner-Eshed's book investigates the flow of this river in the world of the Zoharic heroes, Rabbi Shimon bar Yohai and his disciples, as they embark upon their wondrous spiritual adventures. By focusing on the Zohar's language of mystical experience and its unique features, the author is able to provide remarkable scholarly insight into the mystical dimensions of the Zohar, namely the human quest for an enhanced experience of the living presence of the divine and the Zohar's great call to awaken human consciousness.

This devotional series originally came about in 2015 because I was in need of a morning devotional after finishing several from a Bible Application on my phone. Then it came to mind, that I should do one myself. Well, February is National Heart Month, and I love studying about the heart of David and so I started to write a small piece every morning as a text message on my phone to several of my friends. I had no clue, as to how I was going to be able to have enough material to complete a month of devotionals. Little did I know that there was more lol. It was also during this time, that some very special people in my life were going through life changing journeys, and this devotional series became an opportunity to reach out and speak words of encouragement, hope. Again in 2018, I asked for a commitment from several of my Facebook friends to join me, at least until 14 February. I told them that they could decide if they wanted to continue. Most continued and many were added. From there it expanded to 6 months of daily devotionals written in Facebook Messenger format. You may even see some comments from the readers. Top of the Morning (TOTM) 2018 was dedicated to my granddaughter, Elvisha Jo Henry, who had heart surgery on 12 February of that year. We thought she was to have a new valve installed, virtually a new heart, but God had another plan to repair her existing heart. Many of us have new or mended hearts, through Christ Jesus and that is special! Looking forward to having you join me on this journey look for words of hope, love, and encouragement! God's heart All things are possible when we are lined up with the presence of God and our hearts are in rhythm and flow with his heart. I believe it. Enjoy the journey!

How can we develop and embody an ecclesiology, in contexts of urban marginality, that is radically receptive to the gifts and challenges of the agency of our non-Christian neighbours? Drawing on resources from political theologies, and in particular conversation with Graham Ward and Romand Coles, this book challenges our lazy understanding of receptivity, digging deep to uncover a rich theological seam which has the potential to radically alter how theologians think about what we draw from urban places. It offers a game changing liberative theology rooted not in the global south but from a position of self-critical privilege. Full Text - Description for sales people (Text)

A study of the life and work of "the Maggid"—a major figure in the mystical thought of early Hasidism Enshrined in Jewish memory simply as "the Maggid" (preacher), Rabbi Dov Ber Friedman of Mezritsh (1704-1772) played a critical role in the formation of Hasidism, the movement of mystical renewal that became one of the most important and successful forces in modern Jewish life. In Speaking Infinities, Ariel Evan Mayse turns to the homilies of the Maggid to explore the place of words in mystical experience. He argues that the Maggid's theory of language is the key to unpacking his abstract mystical theology as well as his teachings on the devotional life and religious practice. Mayse shows how Dov Ber's vision of language emerges from his encounters with Ba'al Shem Tov (the BeSHT), the founder of Hasidic Judaism, whose teaching put forward a vision of radical divine immanence. Taking the BeSHT's notion of God's immanence as a kind of linguistic vitality echoing in the cosmos, Dov Ber developed a theory of language in which all human tongues, even in their mundane forms, have the potential to become sacred when returned to their divine source. Analyzing homilies and theological meditations on language, Mayse demonstrates that Dov Ber was an innovative thinker and contends that, in many respects, it was Dov Ber, rather than the BeSHT, who was the true founder of Hasidism as it took root, and the foremost shaper of its early theology. Speaking Infinities offers an exploration of this introspective mystic's life, gleaned from scattered anecdotes, legends, and historical sources, distinguishing the historical personage from the figure that emerges from the composite array of textual and oral traditions that have shaped the memory of the Maggid and his legacy.

Do we understand how our food choices, thoughts, and emotions directly affect our physical health? Who controls our personal health and well-being? Our doctors? Our healthcare system? Our Lord? Or ourselves? As a Christian acupuncturist in private practice, yet fully integrated into the healthcare networks of Los Angeles, Jamie Chan-Ortega is able to offer natural healthcare and spiritual counsel within a system that all too often focuses just on the body in parts and grossly overlooks how a chronically stressed and negative mind, burdened heart, or broken spirit can aggravate if not directly cause a multitude of physical ailments and disease. Do you crave: —the wholeness of health —the fullness of joy —gifts from God, freely given We must pursue them! Can we follow God and take heed to science at the same time? Yes, we can. We can strike that balance between being responsibly in control of our health yet surrendered to God. With tremendous insight, great intelligence, and a readily-felt tenderness, Jamie encouragingly shows us how to apply scientific facts and spiritual principles into our everyday lives so that we can truly experience the fullness of life God intends for each and every one of us.

This book consists of thirty-eight linear expositions of the text of Scripture called "The Sermon on the Mount" (Matt. 5-7). Also included is a fresh translation of the text from the original language. All thirty-eight of these units were originally sermons preached at a local congregation in Tyler, Texas. It is hoped that the words of our Lord Jesus Christ will receive another "look" by men and women and children; and that the Spirit of Christ will use this book as one little "piece" in the proliferation of a new Reformation - to the glory of Christ and His Kingdom. Daniel's story is one of extraordinary faith in God lived out at the pinnacle of executive power. It tells of four teenage friends, born in the tiny state of Judah about twenty-six centuries ago, but captured by Nebuchadnezzar, emperor of Babylon. Daniel describes how they eventually rose to the top echelons of administration. Daniel and his friends did not simply maintain their private devotion to God; they maintained a high-profile witness in a pluralistic society antagonistic to their faith. That is why their story has such a powerful message for us. Society tolerates the practice of Christianity in private and in church services, but it increasingly deprecates public witness. If Daniel and his compatriots were with us today they would be in the vanguard of the public debate. What was it that gave that ancient foursome, Daniel and his three friends, the strength and conviction to be prepared, often at great risk, to swim against the flow?

"As The Words Flow" is a collection of poems that speak to the human experience by sharing my own. In a time where I thought no one was listening or would even understand me, I began to write. I wrote to ease my mind, soothe my broken heart, and to show sides of me most don't get to see, with hopes of inspiring the next person. As a result, this book was created. These are my words. And they have a way of lingering and discovering the love of God. It encourages an individual to read the Bible for revelation knowledge on how to live a spirit filled life with wisdom from God. You will experience that God is the potter and we are the clay, and if God cleaned me up and set my life back on track, He can do the same for you. EMPOWERED If you want to know who you are in Christ and why you are empowered? Read this book. What are you empowered to do? Jesus was the seed of the woman. You are the seed of Jesus Christ because every born-again believer was born out of Him. He died to give you new life. One seed gave rise to hundreds and thousands of more seeds. If we truly love the Seed of the woman, then we will enthusiastically and willingly obey His mandate. Did Christ delegate His authority to just a few? Is this mandate given to every believer? Did He create every human being upon this earth? Does He love every human being and want them to come to the knowledge of Christ? Read this book. It will not only motivate, increase your faith, help you to live out Jesus Christ, make you faithful but also help you live a prosperous and a victorious life. This book will show how you are living below your expectation. There is a miracle in every seed! You are empowered to sow that seed. THE SEED IS THE WORD. Life! What is life? Life is encapsulated in a seed. The seed is the Word. Words, Words, Words! Powerful words! This must find an abiding place in the heart of the "would be believers." The Holy Spirit hovers over the man. The Spirit and the Word work together. The Spirit helps to break up the fallow ground of the heart, causing furrows. The Word brings conviction which engenders repentance. The hearing ear causes the word to be embedded in the furrows of the heart. The "rain" of the Spirit helps the seed in the heart to germinate. The angelic host, sing hallelujah! A child is born into the Kingdom of God. What a joyous moment! Birthing always brings with it great rejoicing and joy unspeakable. Why did Jesus take those thirty nine stripes on His back? His flesh on His back was torn causing bleeding and gaping furrows. The seeds that fell into these furrows birthed the first fruits of His ministry. The Seed of the woman, who was scourged, broken and bruised did not go through this agony and pain in vain. His death on the cross birthed hundreds and millions of souls. Being born out of Jesus Christ is real life! Abundant life! Eternal life! THE SEED FAITH Faith! What is faith? " Oh faithless and perverse generation " Everyone has a measure of faith. How does this measure of "faith" translate to " faith that moves mountains." Faith is seed. The seed is the Word. Faith grows as the Word is heard. Faith flourishes and matures to bear fruit. How does this happen? The increase comes by hearing and hearing again the Word. Whether one is hearing the Word from the lips of others or listening to ones own voice or meditating on the Word or reading silently, the inner ear is listening to the Word. As this word enters the heart it becomes the Rhema Word. Living out the Word helps faith to grow. "For without faith it is impossible to please God" (Hebrews 11 : 6) Obedience flows out of our faith in God. The Spirit of the Word has the "dunamis" power to increase our spiritual faith. Faith is like the electrifying power as we surrender in homage to our Creator God. Abraham is a very good example of such a faith He obeyed God without question. No wonder that he is referred to as the "Friend of God." He walked with God and he sensitized his ear to hearing from God. God is not asking for big faith but faith the size of a seed. If your faith is a seed it will germinate and grow. When faith matures it will bear fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty fold and others hundred fold. So faith is a fruit that God loves in everyone of us. " If you have faith as a mustard seed you will say to this mountain, " move from here to there, it will move and nothing will be impossible for you." Matthew 17: 18 20 THE SEED ANOINTINGou set apart and sanctified? Do you need protection and strength? Do you need empowerment to be defensive and offensive? You need to be empowered by the Spirit of God. He will fill you with His pow

"His Spoken Words!" Whose words are we referring to? Many great people spoke words of wisdom but none spoke the words of truth. In the courts of law when one is called to testify the clerk of the court will hold out a Bible and the person will place his or her hand on the Bible and say, what I am about to testify to is nothing but the truth so help me God. But my friends there are occasions where that is not so in the court of law. Well these words which you are about to enhance in your thoughts are spoken words of truth and wisdom. Come with me as we reveal who this person is, and why His Spoken words were the truth above all other true words. Rev. Martin Edior

God's spoken Word is complete with all His fullness, with all power to accomplish what it is sent forth to do. There is supernatural power in the spoken Word of God. All things came into being through the power in the spoken Word of the Father. "As the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return to it without watering the earth and making it bud and flourish, so that it yields seed for the sower and bread for the eater, so is My Word that goes out from My mouth: it will not return to Me empty but will accomplish what I desire and achieve the purpose for which I sent it." Declares the Lord God (Isaiah 55:10-11 NIV). God's spoken Word will never return void without fulfilling its purpose but will yield forth and produce results that are pleasing in His sight. God's spoken Word is true and with infinite power; it has been tried, tested, and purified. Believe in the unchanging and powerful Word of God, because all things are possible to them that believe!

This devotional has tried to present God the loving Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit as our personal friends. God cares so much for us that he is interested in every part of our lives. No matter what we do, Jesus is walking with us. Even though it may appear that Jesus is not there, Jesus is really walking beside us all the time. In our journey, we have to listen, to learn and be ready to speak to those people Jesus brings into our life. It is not the start or the end of the journey that is as important as the journey itself. It is in our journey that we will touch people. We have a chance to tell people how much God loves us. We have a chance to speak of God blessing our life.
