Readings in Human Resource Development

Human Resource Development has emerged as a new field in the last decade. In the industrial sector a good deal of knowledge has been generated on HRD methodologies, processes and outcomes. However, the HRD function has a long way to go to have a visible and acknowledgeable impact in most organisations. It is yet to make its beginnings in the non-profit and service sectors where it is most needed.

The Handbook of Formal Methods in Human-Computer Interaction

In the first comprehensive study of African American war literature, Jennifer James analyzes fiction, poetry, autobiography, and histories about the major wars waged before the desegregation of the U.S. military in 1948. Examining literature about the Civil War, the Spanish-American Wars, World War I, and World War II, James introduces a range of rare and understudied texts by writers such as Victor Daly, F. Grant Gilmore, William Gardner Smith, and Susie King Taylor. She argues that works by these as well as canonical writers such as William Wells Brown, Paul Laurence Dunbar, and Gwendolyn Brooks mark a distinctive contribution to African American letters. In establishing African American war literature as a long-standing literary genre in its own right, James also considers the ways in which this writing, centered as it is on moments of national crisis, complicated debates about black identity and African Americans' claims to citizenship. In a provocative assessment, James argues that the very ambivalence over the use of violence as a political instrument defines African American war writing and creates a compelling, contradictory body of literature that defies easy summary.

This report provides guidance for operating and maintaining light-emitting diode (LED) airfield ground lighting systems, including taxi guidance signs, elevated light fixtures, and in-pavement light fixtures. The research team prepared its guidance based on a literature review, an extensive survey of nearly 50 airports, and case studies of 12 airports. The guidebook begins with an overview of regulatory requirements as they relate to LED airfield lighting and a summary of the survey and case studies. The report then provides guidance on maintenance, including acceptance testing and warranty, fixture obsolescence and spare part recommendations, preventive maintenance and refurbishment/repair, maintenance practices during pavement repair, and environmental factors (e.g., vibration and moisture). The guidebook also covers operational considerations, including circuit configuration, heaters, monitoring, photometric and chromaticity analysis, and return-on-investment. The guidebook is supplemented by sample system requirements and maintenance schedules. The guidebook will be of particular interest to airport operations and maintenance (O & M) practitioners seeking to maximize the potential O & M benefits that LED lighting offers as they integrate and/or replace older airfield lighting with this new technology.

In Unlocking Parental Intelligence, long-experienced psychoanalyst, Laurie Hollman, PhD, encourages parents to find the significance behind their child's behaviors by becoming "meaning-makers." Organisation Development

Revolutions are often seen in terms of a spontaneous burst of intense political activity; less attention usually is given to the structures, processes, and perceptions that make such activity possible. This innovative book examines such long-term transformations as they relate to the revolution in the Central African nation of Rwanda, which culminated in its independence in July 1962. While much of the previous work on Rwanda has focused on the royal court and central state institutions, The Cohesion of Oppression instead focuses on politics outside the central heartland. Adopting a "view from below," it explores the interaction of central and local power bases and delineates the transformations introduced into the system by German and Belgian colonial policies that consciously sought to bolster one ethnic group as agents of colonial administration. In the three years before independence, violent conflict in Rwanda resulted in the abolition of the monarchy, the expulsion of the ruling Tutsi ethnic group from power, and the installation of rival Hutu authorities to take control of a presidential regime with an elected Assembly. While basic Rwandan cultural norms persisted during and after the revolution, significant alterations had taken place in the locus of political power and social categories that had access to high office. This book considers both the internal and the non-Rwandan influences that substantially affected these alterations but concentrates on the former, since such an approach has in general been more neglected.

Edible insects have always been a part of human diets, but in some societies there remains a degree of disdain and disgust for their consumption. Insects offer a significant opportunity to merge traditional knowledge and modern science to improve human food security worldwide. This publication describes the contribution of insects to food security and examines future prospects for raising insects at a commercial scale to improve food and feed production, diversify diets, and support livelihoods in both developing and developed countries. Edible insects are a promising alternative to the conventional production of meat, either for direct human consumption or for indirect use as feedstock. This publication will boost awareness of the many valuable roles that insects play in sustaining nature and human life, and it will stimulate debate on the expansion of the use of insects as food and feed.

Juta's Compendium of Tax Legislation 2015: Income Tax Act

The 2015 edition of Juta's compendium of tax legislation examines the amendments to South African tax law through a new lens. In volume 1, Juta law editors have consolidated the tax legislation by incorporating the prelex (legislation in force before recent amendments come in to operation) and pendlex (pending legislation that will only come into operation after 1 April 2012). The text is clearly differentiated by the use of shading to indicate the prelex and pendlex, and effective dates have also been added into the text, further enhancing the reader's understanding of the relevant changes. Tax practitioners are therefore able to read and interpret the changes to tax laws, and to understand the impact of future legislation. In volume 2, the editors have created a table of contents-arranged by section in the act as well as numerically - in respect of each subdivision found in the volume.

The Dimensional Ecology of the Omniverse

A Freedom Bought with Blood

The Dimensional Ecology of the Omniverse: New Book Reveals New Scientific Evidence of the 'Multiverse' Concept Written by Yale graduate Alfred Lambremont Webre, this startling book examines the idea that humanity lives on a planet in one universe that exists in a multiverse. Webre, a leading thinker in the field, details his arguments with simple and stunning clarity. In 2000, author Alfred Lambremont Webre released his book, 'Exopolitics: A Decade of Contact', which founded Exopolitics, the science of relations among intelligent civilizations in the multiverse. Immediately, Webre became a leading extraterrestrial and time-travel whistleblower and as a result, attracted a lot of attention from both the scientific and political communities. With 'The Dimensional Ecology of the Omniverse', Webre cements his role as the developer of the Exopolitics and Dimensional Ecology models of the Omniverse. As Webre points out, the details of his book are vital to help readers understand the connection between science and spirituality. "The book reveals new scientific evidence on matters like the afterlife, the human soul, reincarnation and God," says Webre. "God used to be a matter of personal belief, but Science is confirming spirituality. As the book also shows, Scientists now know that humanity lives on one planet in one solar system in one universe in a multiverse that has, as one Scientist wrote: "a humungous" number of universes in it. I also detail the evidence that souls and God in the spiritual dimensions are co-creating the universes of the multiverse. Each of our souls is a holographic fragment of God, the Source. These revelations have the potential to change the world." Synopsis: Alfred Lambremont Webre's new book, The Dimensional Ecology of the Omniverse, integrates replicable empirical evidence from intelligent civilizations in the multiverse and from the intelligent civilizations of souls and God in the Afterlife. The book demonstrates a new functioning ecology of intelligence in the dimensions in the Omniverse. Early reviews of the book have been undeniably positive. "Alfred Lambremont Webre's The Dimensional Ecology of the Omniverse is of extreme importance because multidimensional intelligence opened to all humans when the Mayan Calendar ended in 2011/2012. We are receiving contact from the fully inhabited omniverse that connects with us by telepathy and teleportation in the quantum dimension of our world. Webre's hypothesis-dimensionality is the key design criteria of the Omniverse as discrete bands of conscious energy by which intelligence organizes itself-is synchronous with my nine-dimensional model that describes how other dimensions contact humans. Webre's compact and easy-to-read book is a brilliant compilation of solid scientific evidence for the existence of human souls that reincarnate and exist in parallel lives in many dimensions, frequently as extraterrestrials! This is a must-read for anyone who wants to fully engage with many dimensions to end absolutely any fear of abandonment, death, or the future," wrote Barbara Hand Clow-co-author with Gerry Clow of Alchemy of 'Nine Dimensions: The 2011/2012 Prophecies and Nine Dimensions of Consciousness'. About the Author: Alfred is a graduate of Yale University and Yale Law School in international law and was a Fulbright Scholar in international economic integration in Uruguay. He has taught economics at Yale University and constitutional law at the University of Texas. Alfred was general counsel to the New York City Environmental Protection Administration, a futurist at Stanford Research Institute (where he directed the proposed 1977 Carter White House extraterrestrial communication study), and was a NGO delegate to the United Nations and the UNISPACE conference. Alfred is active with non-profit organizations concerned with peace, the environment, human rights and social justice, consciousness, and intelligent life in the Omniverse.
