After hand-lettering a book of quotes as a baby shower gift for her friend Joanna Goddard (of the popular lifestyle blog, Cup of Jo), Samantha Hahn was inspired to create an illustrated gift book and companion journal for other mothers to personalise. Stories for My Child features prompts for capturing the special quotidian moments of raising a child, along with thoughtfully selected quotes from contemporary and classic sources. Designed with Hahn's ethereal watercolors and chic hand lettering, the journal represents a sophisticated take on the parenting keepsake, and a treasure to pass along when the child grows up. My Child will have the same trim and a complementary design to Samantha Hahn's quote book (both available in Spring '16)--making them a wonderful gift set for Mother's Day or baby showers.

52 Weeks of Gratitude

In the world of mass communication and information we're living, it's getting increasingly harder to connect with ourselves. Time spent before reflecting on our innermost desires and goals is being replaced by the scroll-down of our social media feeds. Connections and relationships with others are diminished to simple emoji and text messages. Moments of self-reflection and self-discovery are replaced by reading countless '5 reasons why (insert adjective here)' articles. Deep in our hearts, we're aware of this disconnect we're living, but we don't know how to stop. This journal is a remedy to that problem. A very wise person (Aristotle) once said, "Knowing yourself is the beginning of all wisdom." I couldn't agree more. Knowing yourself can give you a clear idea of what it is you want in life at this moment, the kind of job you'd like to have (or if you'd like to be an entrepreneur perhaps you're more entrepreneurially inclined), what kind of trips you want to take, what kind of activities you want to surround your life with, what kind of friends you'd like to have- etc. Knowing what it is you want is the first step to its acquirement. Self Discovery Journal for Teens and Young Adults: 200 Questions and Writing Prompts to Find Yourself and the Things You Want to Do in Life is designed to reconnect you with yourself through daily fun and thought-provoking journaling prompts. All 200 questions found inside this self-discovery journal will help you discover things about yourself in different areas of your life. Also, in every single question you will find a relevant quote filled with wisdom and optimism. Welcome to this journal of you.

You want change. Maybe your career isn't what you thought it would be . . . or your relationships aren't what you had hoped. Perhaps you have a grand vision for your life but not the smallest clue on how to get there. Wherever you feel stuck or confused, you wish you had someone to hold your hand and guide you. You're just one blank page away. In Let It Out, millennial blogger and podcast host Katie Dalebout shares the transformative practice that will rocket your life to the next level—journaling. Discovering in her darkest moments that a journal is the greatest tool in finding your purpose, healing yourself, and creating the life you desire, she has assembled the practices and insights that will get you "unstuck" for good. And don't worry—you don't need to be a writer! Journaling is simply a method of coaching yourself through your "stuff" and letting it out. It's unclogging your mind from years of destructive thoughts. In doing so, you step into a position of unshakable clarity. Packed with journaling exercises, prompts, and techniques that can be done anywhere and in any language, this guidebook offers you a new way to navigate your daily life, cope with stress, and create exciting, meaningful change. Covering everything from clearing clutter to cultivating abundance to moving beyond fear, it will be your new best friend and coach anytime you seek clarity or crave solace. Simply grab a pen, open your journal, and prepare to let it out.

This beloved book by E. B. White, author of Stuart Little and The Trumpet of the Swan, is a classic of children's literature that is "just about perfect." Illustrations in this ebook appear in vibrant full color on a full-color device and in rich black-and-white on all other devices. Some Pig. Humble. Radiant. These are the words in Charlotte's Web, high up in Zuckerman's barn. Charlotte's spiderweb tells of her feelings for a little pig named Wilbur who she simply wants a friend. They also express the love of a girl named Fern, who saved Wilbur's life when he was the runt of his litter. E. B. White's Newbery Honor Book is a tender novel of friendship, love, life, and death. It will continue to be enjoyed by generations to come. It contains illustrations by Garth Williams, the accomplished illustrator of E. B. White's Stuart Little and Laura Ingalls Wilder's Little House series, among many other books.

As a botanist, Robin Wall Kimmerer has been trained to ask questions of nature with the tools of science. As a member of the Citizen Potawatomi Nation, she embraces the notion that plants and animals are our teachers. In Braiding Sweetgrass, Kimmerer brings these two lenses of knowledge together to take us on a journey that is every bit as mythic as it is scientific, as sacred as it is historical, as clever as it is wise (to quote the poet W. S. Gilbert). Drawing on her life as an indigenous scientist, and as a woman, Kimmerer shows how other life forms—asters and goldenrod, strawberries and squash, salamanders, algae, and sweetgrass—offer us lessons, even if we've forgotten how to hear their voices. In reflections that range from the creation of the world to the Island to the forces that threaten its flourishing today, she circles toward a central argument: that the cultivation of ecological consciousness requires the acknowledgment and celebration of our reciprocal relationships with all living things.

rest of the living world. For only when we can hear the languages of other beings will we be capable of understanding the generosity of the earth, and learn to give our own gifts in return.

Have you ever wanted to write a story, but you didn't know how? Or are you good at writing stories, but you have no ideas? Are you currently writing a story, but you have writers block? Well, have I got the book for you! You can call your friend because we've just built up a rapport with my rhetorical questions. This is a book of writing prompts. These are little things that will help you along to writing some amazing stuff that sparks your mind. You're wondering: "But what kind of prompts are they? I've seen writing prompts before, but they're all lame." That's a good thing to be wondering, friend. I've crafted and homebrewed only the finest of prompts for your pleasure. You won't be confined to any one genre, you'll find a limitless amount of prompts ranging from comedy to serious to horror. I say limitless, but I meant 1,000 prompts precisely. I said 1,000 precisely, but there's slightly more if you count the introduction. Listen, friend, I promise not to fib from this point on. The book is split into a few sections: Beginners Writing Prompts (it's a super short section, don't worry); Constrained Writing (that's where you are forced into absolutely specific criteria for the prompt); Flash Fiction (either a word count or a time count is imposed upon you); Ripper Prompts (you are given a list of items for "Random Item Prompts"); and the bulk of the book ends with basic writing prompts with which you can write as much as you please with no tricks! If you're still reading this description, allow me to tell you more uses for this book. Use it in your writing classes! Yes, teachers, I've done the work for you. I'll even let you lie and say the prompts were yours. You'll be in your mind. Corporate synergy teams! That's right, group building exercise makers, you can relax in your leather chair and state that you know just how to get the company working together. Present some of these prompts and you'll be a hit. Temporarily disenfranchised millionaire authors in waiting! Your hit novel is contained in one of these prompts, I'm certain of it! Use this book for scripts, for blogs, for journals, for impressing potential clients. Otherwise I am sure it would make an attractive door wedge! Have I used enough exclamation marks to convince you? No? Check out these sections and be dazzled Section Information: Section 1: Beginners Writing Prompts (20 Prompts) Section 2: Flash Fiction Prompts (80 Prompts) Section 3: Random Item Prompts AKA Rippers (20 Prompts - List of 26 random items) Section 4: Constrained Writing (30 Prompts) Section 5: Writing Prompts (850 Prompts)

Discover the bottomless, refreshing Well of God's Word--and experience a fullness and peace beyond your circumstances. In the chaos of our everyday, it can be difficult to live out and apply the truths of Scripture. We want more of Jesus, but we find ourselves looking to our own lives and accomplishments for our worth and identity. And while that may buoy us for a time, we're often left feeling dried up, discouraged, and longing for more. Gretchen Saffles knows what it's like to feel overwhelmed and unable to flourish. In The Well-Watered Woman, Gretchen leads us to the Well of fullness, the Word of freedom, and the Way of fruitfulness. She shows us that God's Word will satisfy us for all eternity. Using Scripture and her own personal story of surrender, she offers spiritually hungry women tangible tools to not only know Jesus more but to live a life that thoroughly enjoys Him, seeks Him, and follows Him into freedom.
