The PDE study resulted in a comprehensive life coaching business plan template designed specifically for the life coaching industry. An action research methodology was utilized to offer a solution to a practical concern for life coaches starting a new business. In an effort to generate more successful life coaches and enhance the profession of coaching, the study investigated two research questions: How is a business plan creation tool designed specifically for the life coaching profession useful for starting a life coaching business? What is the efficacy and effect of a specified life coaching business plan template? Six free workshops were held for life coaches and evaluated by a series of two debriefing questionnaires to contribute new knowledge on the usefulness and benefits associated with using a specialized business plan writing template. The majority of life coaches in the sample revealed they had not written a business plan for their life coaching business. Although coaches create a blueprint life plan with their clients, they are missing in designing a blueprint to guide their life coaching business. Nearly all the life coaches in the study reported some benefit associated with use of the specialized life coaching business plan template, which included, but was not limited to: a moderate increase in income and clients; meeting business goals with moderate effectiveness; greater focus and clarity of the business; a plan to follow; and enhanced optimism and confidence related to the success of the business. The most common benefit was the template was specific and unique for life coaches and the profession of life coaching. A secondary phenomenon was also observed. Although the life coaches in the study expected positive results from the use of their new business plan, a large percentage did not comply with implementation of their business plan written from the specialized template. In conclusion, recommendations from the results of the study included: the specialized business plan template could be further enhanced by a mechanism to increase implementation of the completed business plan; life coaches who refer to their specialized business plan template at least once a month or more will increase their number of clients and income; and recommendations by the subjects to improve the template may improve its value.

But the only thing that separates the successful from everybody else is that they have learned how to bridge the gap between setting goals and achieving them. They have developed ways of behaving and – more importantly – ways of “thinking” that enable them to get what they want. The good news is, it's possible for anyone to learn these techniques. As a parent or teacher you can sharpen your own skills ... then pass them along to the teens in your lives. The follow up to James Smith's international number one bestseller, Not a Diet Book.

Being a life coach is a fulfilling way to make money doing what you love, while making a difference! But, the truth is that not all life coaches are successful. Some never learn the skills they need to create a thriving business, and others get stuck because they're only able to reach a certain level of success, and income, by meeting one-on-one with clients. There is only so much time in a day, some of which is spent on marketing and other business-related-stuff. Once a coach fills their schedule with clients, they reach the ceiling of their growth. Their only option is to raise their rates, but this isn't always easy or even appropriate, depending on the population they serve. The good news is that there is a way to serve more people and increase revenue at the same time. The secret to creating a successful life coaching business is offering group life coaching programs. Think about it, much of what you do with each client is exactly the same. If you say the same thing 10 times to 10 different people, why not say it to all of them at once? If you develop a program out of your coaching process, you can walk a group of people through the same coaching activities and steps, together. By creating a group coaching business, you can: 1) reach more people in less time, 2) offer an easy-to-sell low-cost option, 3) upsell your favorite clients to one-on-one coaching, 4) create a more predictable schedule and income, and 5) increase your per-hour revenue ($50 x 10 is greater than $150 x 1). In this book, you will find the exact blueprint that thousands of our life coaching students have used to create their own group life coaching programs. You'll learn everything you need to: 1) turn the process you use with your clients into a complete group coaching curriculum, 2) learn professional communication and facilitation skills so you can effectively manage and lead your group, and 3) structure your offer, set your price, and create marketing campaigns that fill your groups.

What kind of life would you live if you didn't allow your fears to hold you back? The Courage Habit offers a powerful program to help you conquer your inner critic, work toward your highest aspirations, and build a courageous community. Are your fears preventing you from living the life you truly want? Do you ever wish that you had a better job, lived in a different city, or had more authentic and nurturing relationships? Many people believe that they would do more, accomplish more, and feel more fulfilled if only they could rid themselves of that fearful inner voice that constantly whispers, “you can't do it.” In The Courage Habit, certified life coach Kate Swoboda offers a unique program based in cognitive behavioral therapy (CBT) and acceptance and commitment therapy (ACT) to help you act courageously in spite of fear. By identifying your fear triggers, releasing yourself from your past experiences, and acting on what you truly value, you can make courage a daily habit. Using a practical four-part program, you'll learn to understand the emotions that arise when fears are triggered, and to pause and evaluate your emotional state before you act. You'll discover how to listen without attachment to the self-defeating messages of your inner critic, understand the critic's function, and implement respectful boundaries so that your inner voice no longer controls your behavior. You'll reframe self-limiting life narratives that can—without conscious awareness—dictate your day-to-day decisions. And finally, you'll nurture more authentic connections with family, friends, and community in order to find support and reinforce the life changes you're making. If you feel like something is holding you back from landing your dream job, moving to a new city, having a satisfying love relationship, or simply taking advantage of all life has to offer—and if you have a sneaking suspicion that that something is you—then this one-of-a-kind guide will show you how to finally break free from self-doubt and start living your best life.

BRAVE THINKING is the culmination of more than 40 years of study, and 30 years of teaching this technology of transformation. People struggle with relationships. They struggle with money. They struggle with health. I've been coaching first as a minister, then for the last decade as a trainer outside the church world. But teaching, studying, and working in this laboratory called life. I've been both a student, and I've been a trainer in this laboratory, helping people unlock what it is they would love to have, be, do, give in their life. And helping them understand their capacity to do this. To use brave thinking and tap into the field of infinite possibility, potentiality, and work with a particular dream vision for their lives, so they can begin to see the pattern. Because once you see the pattern of how thoughts become things and how you can take what looks like very little and translate it into something much more – it's as different as moving from simple addition to squaring in math. When you are working with simple addition, the only way to get to 25 is you must amass 25 ones. When you learn to multiply you find that you only need two 5's to get to that same result. It takes way less effort and you have way more results. And when you move up the ladder of awareness a little bit further, you see you only need one 5. Brave Thinking will help people recognize that they have everything they need to live a life they love living, and a life that really has meaning and purpose and substance and significance. And I know how to do that. I know how to help them. BRAVE THINKING provides the code to a very different kind of thinking. Either one opens the doors to a potential that is something we are in love with, or something we fear. The purpose of this book is to provide very concrete direct clear simple understandings. Such as the world was flat or other kinds of commonplace thinking and help them recognize how much of that has governed their lives or the lives of people they know. It will show examples of people who dared to think beyond the boundaries of ordinary thinking and who dared to learn a new system of thinking. Rather than being condition based in a way of living life, they began to live a life that is vision-driven. And they came from a vision rather than living from circumstance. Most people think that when the circumstances change, “then I can make a new decision,” “then I can have something,” “then I can be something,” “then I can do something.” What if it's just the opposite? When you watch your television, and there are other common examples we'll use, when you turn on a TV, the picture you are seeing comes from the frequency that your tuner is tuned to. And when you go to a movie theater, the dancing images on the screen are simply reflections of the light passing through the film that's held before the projector.
